WHO WE ARE

The Housing Association for Integrated Living is a voluntary housing association established in 1985. The Association is managed by a voluntary board that includes people experienced in housing, architecture, law, construction, engineering, finance, psychiatry and social care provision. HAIL operates as a social housing provider throughout the greater Dublin area. HAIL has established a reputation as an excellent housing and support provider within the voluntary housing sector and with mainstream social services.

WHAT WE DO

HAIL provides general needs housing and housing with support for individuals and families throughout the greater Dublin area. Our range of properties include:

- Properties renovated and refurbished to provide modern individual houses and apartments
- General needs housing developments
- Housing adapted for people with physical disabilities
- Shared housing for those with additional support needs
